

Michigan Gun Owners
www.migunowners.org

Changes to Michigan Law Regarding Sales of Firearms PA 19 of 2023 – Went into effect February 13, 2024

	NON-FFL Seller Private Buyer Buyer HAS a CPL	NON-FFL Seller Private Buyer Buyer does NOT have a CPL	FFL Seller Private Buyer Buyer HAS a CPL	FFL Seller Private Buyer Buyer does NOT have a CPL
PISTOL	Only change is the SELLER is responsible to submit the completed RI-060.  Out-of-State Carry Permit Exception STILL APPLIES	Only change is the SELLER is responsible to submit the completed LTP (RI-010).  Out-of-State Carry Permit Exception STILL APPLIES	Only change is the SELLER is responsible to submit the completed RI-060.  FFL STILL must run a NICS background check.  Out-of-State Carry Permit Exception STILL APPLIES	BUYER must first obtain a LTP (RI-010).  FFL does not have to run a NICS background check (but is not prohibited from doing so), but CANNOT complete the sale until the buyer first has a LTP (RI-010).  Out-of-State Carry Permit Exception STILL APPLIES.
LONG GUNS (NOT INCLUDING NFA ITEMS)	RI-060 must be completed by seller, including buyer's CPL number.  No paperwork submission required after the sale.  Out-of-State Carry Permit Exception APPLIES	BUYER must first obtain a LTP (RI-010).  No paperwork submission required after the sale.  Out-of-State Carry Permit Exception APPLIES	FFL STILL must run a NICS background check (unless buyer has first obtained a LTP which is NOT required for long guns).  RI-060 must be completed by FFL, but is NOT required to be submitted after the sale.  Out-of-State Carry Permit Exception APPLIES

As used in this document:

CPL: Concealed Pistol License
FFL: Federal Firearms Licensee (gun shop/dealer)
LTP: License to Purchase
NFA: National Firearms Act (Federal restrictions on certain firearms including "machine guns" and others)

NICS: National Instant Criminal Background Check System (used by firearms dealers and law enforcement agencies)
RI-010: Form provided by local law enforcement agencies, aka a License to Purchase (LTP)
RI-060: Form provided by the Michigan State Police for documenting firearms transactions